ABOUT ANDRE

Andre Fullerton is the Founder and Principal Consultant of NextLevel Youth Leadership. With over 20 years of experience in education, public service and community development, he has created opportunities for youth through employment and sport-based programs, and supported personal growth through mentorship and leadership development, including through Footsteps 2 Success.

An MBA graduate of the Ivey Business School with master's-level education in Equity, Diversity and Social Justice, and a former college athlete and coach, Andre speaks with students, educators and community leaders about confidence, identity, opportunity and leadership, helping young people build confidence, discover their potential and achieve meaningful success.

SPEAKING TOPICS

01 Leadership That Starts With You
Building self-awareness, confidence, accountability and the habits that help young people lead themselves and others.

02 The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens
An interactive conversation about personal responsibility, goal-setting, priorities, relationships and making choices that move you forward.

03 Understanding and Challenging Anti-Black Racism
Recognizing systemic and everyday racism, understanding its impact, and identifying practical ways to build safer, more equitable schools and communities.

04 Bullying, Belonging and Bystander Leadership
Exploring the impact of bullying, online behaviour and exclusion, and how students can create a culture of respect, safety and belonging.

05 Life Choices: Decisions Today, Opportunities Tomorrow
Helping young people think critically about decisions, peer pressure, relationships, consequences and the future they want to create.

06 Resilience, Identity and Purpose
Developing a positive sense of identity, navigating setbacks and turning challenges into growth and direction.

07 From Potential to Opportunity: Youth Leadership and Career Readiness
Practical tools for communication, teamwork, networking, workplace readiness and recognizing pathways to success.

08 The Power of Sport: Discipline, Teamwork and Life Lessons
Using sport to explore leadership, inclusion, confidence, healthy competition and transferable life skills.
